
Humphrey Products Conflict Minerals Statement

Humphrey Products is a privately held company and is not SEC listed, therefore it is not subject to Section 1502 of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act. Nor is it subject to the Securities and Exchange Commission Rules adopted in connection therewith, requiring SEC listed corporations to report the use of "Conflict Minerals" in the manufacture of their products. Conflict Minerals are defined as cassiterite, columbite-tantalite, gold, wolframite, or their derivatives, including tantalum, tin, and tungsten, which originate from the Democratic Republic of the Congo or specified adjoining countries. Humphrey Products understands that our customers may be required to comply with these requirements and thus we are committed to helping our customers meet their reporting requirements.
